Event Description

This year's conference saw speakers from a variety of social and professional backgrounds deliver engaging and thought provoking talks on ideas that centered around the theme of 'Transcending Limits'. The festival of ideas began with Dr. Kanan Chikal, who shared ways and means to improve upon the five basic quotients that define one's personality and character. This engaging talk was succeeded by an insight into RiiDL - a cornerstone of Mumbai's entrepreneurship and engineering community, by Chief Innovations Catalyst, Gaurang Shetty. The audience was then introduced to Anita Shirodkar, an author and former design and advertising professional, who entered the corporate world at the tender age of 18, having completed her education in her early teen years. TV and online content consumers were then delighted to meet Yash Patnaik, whose work in Indian Television had many fans in the audience. He encouraged the audience to not fear the art of storytelling, and to get out there and write their own. The conference halls echoed with laughter as the next speaker, Santosh Avvannavar delivered a comedic talk on tips and tricks to great communication. The conference concluded with Amruta Pendse, who shared 7 ways to manage a Quarter Life crisis and live life in the process. The day's proceedings were enhanced by musical and artistic performances by sitarist Prasad Rahane and sculptor Shubhaankar Kamble. The live sculpting of the bust of a farmer and renditions of the Bond theme tune on a sitar enthralled the audience and had them at the edge of their seats. TEDxSIESGST 2018 was a huge success.
