Event Description

Model United Nations 2025

The 11th edition of Model United Nations (MUN) 2025 was successfully conducted on March 22nd and 23rd, 2025, at SIES Graduate School of Technology, Nerul. This prestigious two-day international relations conference provided a dynamic platform for college students to engage in insightful discussions on pressing global issues. With enthusiastic participation from delegates across various institutions, MUN 2025 upheld its legacy of fostering diplomatic skills, critical thinking, and leadership qualities among students.

Committees and Agendas

This year's MUN featured three meticulously curated committees, each tackling crucial contemporary geopolitical challenges:

United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) - Double Delegate

Agenda: Widespread human rights violations in Syria amid civil war and extremist control, along with its global repercussions.

United Nations Security Council (UNSC)

Agenda: Addressing the multidimensional threats posed by 4th-generational cyberterrorism, 3rd-generational cross-border terrorism, nuclear proliferation, and the persistent dangers of sleeper cells.

Lok Sabha

Agenda: Abrogation of Article 370 in Jammu and Kashmir in conjunction with the implementation of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act (UAPA) under the pretext of national security.

Committee Leadership and Participation

The committees were led by experienced members who ensured structured and productive debates. The UNHRC, comprising 27 delegates, was presided over by Mr. Sanket Gaikwad as President and Ms. Shreya Murthy as Vice President. The UNSC had 25 delegates under the leadership of Chairperson Dhruvv Thakkar and Vice President Manvi Sharma. The Lok Sabha committee, the largest among the three with 38 delegates, was overseen by Speaker Rhea Khanolkar and Deputy Speaker Rushab Shah. All committees witnessed an enthusiastic and high-level participation from delegates, reflecting their commitment to global affairs and governance.

Recognizing Outstanding Delegates

MUN 2025 celebrated the exemplary performance of its participants by acknowledging those who displayed exceptional debating skills, diplomatic acumen, and analytical thinking:

- UNHRC Committee:
 - Winners: Aarav Basu and Arjun Krishnan, representing Israel
 - High Commendation Award: Nirmayi Alawekar and Sanskriti Singh, representing Syria
- UNSC Committee:
 - Winner: Paarth Veturkar, representing Pakistan
 - High Commendation Award: Abhishek Sunilkumar, representing China
- Lok Sabha Committee:
 - Best Parliamentarian Award: Parvez Tamboli, representing Aga Ruhullah
 - Member of High Commendation Award: Shaikh Abuzar Hejazi, representing Asaduddin Owaisi

Impact Analysis

Model United Nations 2025 proved to be an invaluable learning experience for all participants, providing a realistic simulation of diplomatic negotiations and policy-making. The event honed participants' abilities to think critically, articulate their viewpoints persuasively, and engage in constructive dialogue. Through engaging debates, rigorous policy discussions, and immersive crisis simulations, MUN 2025 instilled in students a profound understanding of international relations, strategic diplomacy, and the art of negotiation.

Moreover, the conference fostered teamwork and leadership skills, encouraging students to collaborate effectively while representing their assigned nations and political figures. By navigating complex geopolitical scenarios, delegates were able to gain a nuanced perspective on global conflicts, human rights, and national security.
