SIES students do shramdan at Murbad villa

Staff Reporter, Nerul
 THE National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of SIES Graduate School of Technology, Nerul conducted a seven-day residential camp at Shri village in Murbad taluka, Thane district from January 3 to 9 under the guidance of program officer Dr. Ram Bhusare, area coordinator and Prof. Minal Khadse. Various activities were conducted for 52 NSS volunteers which mainly focused on the development of the village and themselves.

Talking to VASANT TIMES, Dr. Ram Bhusare informed, "Each day began at 4.30 am with a prayer and the NSS song. Then they were taken for a morning jog of 4 km which was followed by yoga. After a tea and snack break, the volunteers proceeded for shramdan. Around 10 am they came back for break. Last Again they continued with shramdan till lunch time."

He added, "After lunch, speaker sessions were organised to create awareness amongst the youngsters. These included awareness against superstitions by Rajendra Koli, personality development session by Tara Shinde and snake awareness by Deepak Gupta. Dr. Vikram Patil, the Principal of SIES GST enlightened the students about various methods to use technical knowledge at the camp site."

Also NSS Program Coordinator of Mumbai University Prof. B S Bidve visited the camp and motivated the students to work towards a bright future and enlightened the importance of social responsibility. Anil Ghorat, ex member Panchayat Samiti, Murbad also interacted with the students.

In the evening there were sports activities organised by the volunteers themselves. This was followed by personality development sessions and dinner.

The volunteers devoted 5 hours daily for shramdan. During this task, they built a check-dam, soil pits and huge sacks of plastic waste were collected.

The camp was greatly supported by the sarpanch of the village Narayan Ilhoir, all villagers and the youth.

"Through this seven-day residential camp the volunteers got an opportunity to serve the people and learn the importance of every basic needs of man," said Dr. Bhusare.

Thanks to these boys, Mabiya's daughter can now go to school

With help from mid-day readers, there were enough funds for the acid attack survivor's daughter to receive schooling, but the absence of a birth certificate was coming in the way of admissions — till two engineering students volunteered to help

The two youngsters are final year students of engineering

They traced the hospital where Anisha was born, and then the relevant BMC ward

Negotiated with authorities and got all the paperwork so that the 5-year-old could be admitted to school

ANISHA FORMS

When Anisha's mother had requested the necessary forms from the BMC, she was told that she had to get a birth certificate from the hospital where Anisha was born. She then contacted the BMC ward and negotiated with the authorities to get all the paperwork so that the 5-year-old could be admitted to school.

The wife of the acid attack survivor, Mabiya, says that she had to get a birth certificate for her daughter, Anisha, to get her admitted to school. She then contacted the BMC ward and negotiated with the authorities to get all the paperwork so that the 5-year-old could be admitted to school.

The birth certificate was issued by the BMC ward after the necessary paperwork was submitted. Mabiya says that she is happy that her daughter can now go to school.

The two engineering students, who volunteered to help, were from the SIES Graduate School of Technology. They were instrumental in getting the necessary paperwork from the BMC ward.

“ We lost the birth certificate as the chawl in Saki Naka where I lived with my husband was demolished. When I hear my daughter say bye to me on her way to school, I will be happy. I thank these boys for this favour, for which I will not be able to repay them — Mabiya Muzumdar
